

Congratulations Jack!

Daughters of the American Revolution Annual Writing Competition Winner!

Chosen as a top winner was eighth grader Jack McCormick's essay entitled Forgotten Patriots Who Supported the American Struggle for Independence. Jack was honored for his writing achievement at the Haddonfield Chapter of the DAR meeting on April 10, 2013 at Springdale Farms in Cherry Hill, NJ. In addition to being awarded the bronze DAR American History Medal; a B & N Gift Card; and an Essay Contest Chapter Winner Certificate, Jack did a wonderful oral presentation of his winning essay for the audience in attendance.
