

CKRS Student have great success at the Coriell Science Fair

Five CKRS Student recieved Special Awards and Honors

This year was a first for entering our science fair projects into the prestigious Coriell Science Fair. The winning projects from the CKRS science fair were enter into Coriell along with more than 300 students from grades 6-12 from all over southern New Jersey competing for their chance at cash prizes and a chance to advance to the Delaware Valley Science Fair.

The 13 participating students were:

Elisa Barile, Alyssa Cavallaro, Dillon Hall, Sean Hall, Jack M^c Cormick, Lauren O'Callaghan, Elise Parker, Matthew Pattison, Paul Ravelli, Robert Saldutti, John Urbach, Alexandra Schwab, and Andrew Turek,

Christ the King was well represented by our Middle School students and they were acknowledged as follows:

First Place Winner:* Alyssa Cavallaro;(category Physics)

Third Place Winners:* Andrew Turek; (category Engineering)

Dillon Hall; (category Medicine & Health)

Honorable Mention:* Lauren O'Callaghan(category Consumer Science)

Jack M^cCormick; (category Botany)

Note: 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will be invited to participate in the 2013 Delaware Valley Science Fair which will be held at the Greater Philadelphia Expo Center in Oaks Pa from April 2-April 4, 2013.

All our students did a fantastic job at representing our school at the Coriell Science Fair. Thank you to Mrs. Grisi and all the competing students for bringing honor to themselves, their family and Christ the King Regional School.

