

Action Alert

Governor Christie's Fiscal Year 2015 Budget will be announced in February. There are several items that could impact nonpublic schools and that will assist nonpublic school students and their parents. They are the following:

1. An increase in nonpublic school nursing services aid to $90.00 per student and the removal of language in the Governor's Budget which limits the per-pupil amount to $77.20.
2. An increase in $20.00 in nonpublic school technology aid to restore the program to $40.00 per pupil.
3. An increase in the amount needed for initial examination and classification for students having specific learning difficulties.

ACTION: Email or call the office of Governor Chris Christie to ask that he include these increases in the nonpublic school accounts in his Fiscal Year 2015 Education Budget.
